

No one or any company should have the right to call me at home to sell me stuff I do not want. If they really need to sell it. Mail it!